

Gilmour Deplow - Cello

Gilmour started studying violoncello at the age of eight years under the tutorship of Mr. Ivan Degabriele. He continued his studies under Mr. Mario Psaila both at the Johann Strauss and privately till he obtained the ABRSM Grade 8. Eventually he continued to further his studies with Mr. Simon Abdilla Joslin. He has also attended and participated in various locally-held master classes by foreign tutors.

Gilmour has several experiences playing in various events, concerts and orchestras. He has a vast experience playing as a soloist as well as in chamber ensembles and orchestras in Malta and Gozo.

He partnered with various different instruments such as clarinet, saxophone, violin, flute, harp and keyboards.

He formed part of various orchestras in several concerts. He performed under the baton of Mro. John Galea, Mro. Dr. Dione Buhagiar, Profs. Joseph Vella, Rev. Dun Gwann Galea, Mro Brian Cefai, Mro. Carmel Grech, Mro Hans Nagel and various others.

Gilmour performed various orchestral works of various composers such as Pergolesi, Mozart, Fauree, Schubert, Haydn, Nani, Diacono, Paolino Vassalli and many others.

In 2004, he had the opportunity to play alongside world famous English cellist, Julian Lloyd Webber in a concert given by the musician himself.

Over the past few years, he also participated on a number of local TV shows, playing both as a solo as well as in chamber ensembles.

Gilmour is also a member of the Cappella Diacono under the baton of Rev. Fr. John Galea.
